

★ SESSION I ★

WHERE REVIVAL BEGINS

1: See _____

Male leadership in the family was God's design _____.
(1 Timothy 2:11-15)

1 Timothy 2:11-15 (ESV)

Let a woman learn quietly with all submissiveness. I do not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man; rather, she is to remain quiet. For Adam was formed first, then Eve; and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor. Yet she will be saved through childbearing—if they continue in faith and love and holiness, with self-control.

One thing we should see in the Fall is a _____.

God's created order has been _____.

2: Embrace _____

Ephesians 5:22-23 (ESV)

Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior.

Male headship:

Ephesians 6:4 (ESV)

Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Male abdication:

Male domination:

3: Fight _____

4: Don't _____

We always have _____.

God _____.

Hebrews 11:6 (ESV)

And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

There is always _____.

Application Questions

As you think through your own home, in what ways do you think you might be tempted by either "male abdication" or "male domination" in your home?

What are some of the distractions you will have to fight as you seek to lead your family well?

For older groups, what are ways you can still invest in leading your home? What opportunities does grandparenting present?
